The HBA's sojourn in Dublin, included a trip up the Liffey, a trip out the Liffey Estuary, entertaining friends and family on board and travelling by boat to the various eateries around the GCD basin. Some of the boats moored out on the Liffey to the port side of the Cill Airne and the crews and their guests dined aboard the ship. Cill Airne History.

On Saturday May 8th, with members of the Dublin Branch of the IWAI and WI staff, we were once again along the Grand Canal helping Dublin Rally 2010 boats through the locks in their descent into Dublin. RTE were on hand to film the proceedings see RTE News May 8
