

The Fifth Sister - HBA negotiates the River Clodiagh to Portlaw - Sep 2011

04 September 2011

Last Updated 13 September 2011

Â

On Saturday Sep 3rd 2011, four barges of the HBA Three Sister Fleet, arrived at the old Lime Quay in the historic town of Portlaw. According to local historians, it is the first time since the 1930s that barges have made it up the River Clodiagh. Among this small fleet are the barges 68M and 72M, both built in the 1930s.

Â

HBA Clodiagh journey describes how we got to Portlaw with some photographs.

Â